

EPISCOPAL COUNCIL

Bishop Randolph Makes a Plea for the Education of the Negro.

DELEGATES ELECTED

Resolutions Joining the Mother Diocese in Inviting the General Council to Richmond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., June 1.—There were many additional delegates at the Episcopal Council this morning in Grace Church.

Bishop Randolph read his annual report, which was, indeed, an interesting paper, dealing with many matters vital to the church's affairs. It is a matter of congratulation, he said, that no deaths have occurred among the clergy of the diocese since the last Council. He paid a splendid tribute to Major Mann Page, whose sudden death occurred recently. The bishop expressed the desire for a missionary in the western portion of the diocese for work among the people in the mountains. During the year he has ordained four presbyters and three deacons for this purpose. Six clergy have been received into the diocese since the last council, and there are several candidates for priesthood and for postulancy. Two churches have been consummated and 704 persons confirmed.

NEGRO EDUCATION.
The bishop discussed at length the status of the negro and the question of his education. This portion of the address was the special order for tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. He declared that a Christian education will prove the most powerful of influences in the education of the African race. The negro should know something about the world, about life and the body, and if the negro knows nothing about the soul, he is a child. Sometimes education kindles the desire for social equality, but good national education does not tend to produce inflation, or inflation of mind is a sign of ignorance, and education is the first enemy to conceit.

The council is not due to education, but to the petty leaders who call themselves the friends of the negroes, the demagogues who buy their votes. He cited the success the English people have had in the education of the Hindoos. The negroes are giving the people of the North, he said, the best example of the problem that the southern people have been trying to solve during a generation.

A MISSIONARY.

At the close of the address, which continued one hour in the delivery, Rev. D. Tucker moved that the appointment of a missionary for the western portion of the diocese be referred to a committee of three clergymen and laymen to report to the bishop's recommendation.

The following standing committee was elected by ballot: Rev. J. McBryde, president; Rev. J. Lloyd, secretary; Rev. Dallas Tucker, C. P. Craighill, Mr. P. Burke, William Minnigerode. The present Diocesan Council was re-elected. A resolution was passed uniting with the Diocese of Virginia in authorizing its delegates to the general convention to be held in Boston, October, 1904, to invite the general convention to hold its session in 1907 in Richmond.

PAROCHIAL REPORT.

Following is a summary of the report submitted by the Parochial Committee: Number of families in the diocese, 6,777; baptized persons, 21,286; baptisms during the year, 739; confirmations, 704; marriages, 307; burials, 561; present number of communicants, 14,909; lay readers, 68; Sunday school teachers, 876; scholars, 5,610; parish schools, 58; pupils, 999; parochial receipts, $20,105; disbursements, $22,102; contributions for general purposes, $4,021; total disbursements during the year, $26,123.

DELEGATES ELECTED.

The Council this afternoon elected the following delegates to the General Convention: Clerical, D. B. Tucker, D. D.; C. E. Grammar, D. D.; J. Lloyd, D. D.; R. J. McBryde, D. D.; lay, W. W. Old, R. E. Withers, Judge E. W. Sanders and Judge W. B. Martin. Alternates, Rev. W. B. Martin, C. P. Craighill, C. O. Pruden, G. J. Logan; lay, T. C. Elder, Judge S. M. G. Whittle, Jacob Hoffberger and J. M. McBryde. The delegates were not instructed.

A new parish in Jackson county, to be known as Jackson Parish, was created. Upon motion of Dr. C. E. Grammar, the Council petitioned the General Convention to authorize the reading of the revised version of the Bible in the lecture-ary of the church.

Upon motion of Rev. W. A. R. Goodwyn, a committee was appointed to copy or have copied the old vestry books and vestry registers containing data of historical interest relative to the history of the church in colonial Virginia. Rev. C. B. Bryan, Rev. W. A. R. Goodwyn and Rev. R. J. McBryde were appointed the committee.

The Council authorized the committee to have copies of two of these old books submitted to the Valentine Museum in Richmond, to be published by them without cost to the diocese.

RHEUMATISM

JOINTS AND MUSCLES SWOLLEN AND STIFF

A disease so painful and far-reaching in its effects upon the human system as Rheumatism, must have a deep and well-laid foundation. It originates in the blood, and, like other diseases of the blood, is frequently inherited. The poisonous acids with which the blood is charged circulate through the system, breaking down the health, irritating the nerves, settling in joints and muscles, and causing the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to Rheumatism. Unless the blood is purified, joints and muscles become coated with the acid matter and are rendered stiff and sore, and the nerves completely wrecked. Rheumatism, being a constitutional blood disease, requires internal treatment. Liniments, plasters and such things as are applied outwardly give only temporary relief. S. S. S. is the recognized greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, and it has no disease does it act so promptly and beneficially as Rheumatism, neutralizing the acids and restoring the blood to a pure, healthy condition and invigorating and toning up the nerves and all parts of the system. It is guaranteed strictly vegetable. Write us should you desire medical advice, which will cost you nothing.

Columbus, O., May 30, 1903.
I had a severe attack of inflammatory Rheumatism. I had been in bed for six months. I had tried everything I had heard of, but nothing did me any good. I was getting discouraged when I began to use S. S. S. My knee and elbow joints were so swollen and painful that I could not move them. I began to use S. S. S. and I saw it was helping me, continued, and to-day I am sound, well man.
1905 Mr. Vernon Ave. R. H. CHAPMAN.

HE SHOOTS HIMSELF THROUGH THE BRAIN

Lyman C. Spalding Commits Suicide and Leaves No Explanation.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, Va., June 1.—Lyman C. Spalding, brother of V. Spalding, superintendent of the Southern Express Company, committed suicide at the Ponce de Leon Hotel this afternoon by shooting himself through the head. A chamberlain entered his room and found him stretched out on the floor dead. He had stood before the mirror and placed the pistol at the right side of his head. The ball passed through and lodged in the wall. He had been on a spree for several months. He left no note or anything giving any reason for suicide.

The housekeeper, who was in the room two hours before the body was found, says he was lying on the bed reading at the time.

He was a native of Plattsburg, N. Y., but came here two years ago from Petersburg to accept a position in the office of his brother. He was fifty-six years of age and unmarried.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE

Spend the Day in Culpeper and Are Well Entertained.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CULPEPER, Va., June 1.—The legislative committee to determine a site for the location for a State Female Normal School, visited Culpeper to-day and were amply entertained. A reception was tendered them by the Corporation Committee. Addresses were made, and the friends of the school, in various forms were on the part of the community made known to the visiting committee. Many beautiful sites were offered.

R. R. TO BLACKSBURG.

Extension of the Virginia Anthracite Co.'s Line Commenced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHRISTIANBURG, Va., June 1.—Work was begun this morning on the extension of the Virginia anthracite line of railway from their mines, four miles from here, to Blacksburg, and the work will be rapidly pushed to completion, thus making an all-rail line between here and Blacksburg, which has long been hoped for and is now about to be realized.

CONGRESSMAN MAYNARD WITHOUT OPPOSITION

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., June 1.—Congressman H. L. Maynard will have no opposition for nomination for re-election in the various districts of the general convention, which is held in Boston, October, 1904.

The fact that he secures the nomination without opposition is gratifying to his friends. Mr. Maynard has already served this district one term very acceptably. His magnificent work for the Jamestown Exposition makes his single term noteworthy among the records of Virginia congressmen.

AFTER BLIND TIGERS.

Nearly Three Hundred Summoned Before the Grand Jury.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., June 1.—Nearly three hundred people were summoned to appear before the grand jury of the Corporation Court Monday, to testify regarding the illegal sale of whiskey. It is claimed by the police that the city is infested with innumerable blind tigers. Among those who have been summoned are two prominent members of the Anti-Saloon League, whose names are not known.

Perils of High Water.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., June 1.—While returning from the Blue Ridge Hunt Club meeting at Millwood, Clarke county, last night, through a terrific rain storm, John Hunter, a prominent business man of this city, was caught in the Opague and narrowly escaped drowning. He suffered a fracture of a shoulder and a broken leg. He was taken to a late hour last night in his buggy, and the entire outfit was washed a mile down the Opague and around by the current, and was rescued by farmers in an exhausted condition.

The team was also saved.

Mr. Burton to Wed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, Va., June 1.—Mr. Jeter C. Burton, formerly of this city, now a representative in Cuba, who is spending his vacation in this State and North Carolina, left to-day for Edgecumbe, the latest bride in the State to be married at noon to-morrow to Miss Kate James. Mr. Burton and his bride will spend their honeymoon in St. Louis.

WEDDINGS IN OLD VIRGINIA

Three Interesting Marriages in the Town of Gordonsville.

MISS GOODLOE, MR. SAMPSON

Mr. Bernard A. Payne Makes Miss Caroline Morris His Bride.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GORDONSVILLE, Va., June 1.—Great interest has been manifested to-day among the Gordonsville social set in the marriages of three of its attractive members.

Miss Carrie Goodloe, daughter of Mr. Spotswood Goodloe, and niece of Mr. E. B. Eddins, a prominent tobacconist of Richmond, was married at noon at her lovely country home, "Corlstone," to Mr. Ellis Sampson, of English parentage. The marriage was strictly private, only the members of the family of the contracting parties were present.

The bride was gowned in blue voile. No waiters or ushers officiated; only the simple marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Tupper Wingfield, of the Baptist Church.

Miss Goodloe is a graduate of the Woman's College of Richmond, has been associated in teaching in the Gordonsville country educational school, and is extremely popular.

Among those present were her sister, Mrs. Parrish, and her uncle, Mr. E. B. Eddins, both of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Sampson left at 1 P. M. for a visit to Virginia Falls.

FAYNE-MORRIS.
At 2:30 P. M. Miss Caroline Morris, daughter of Mr. Hampden Morris, was married in the Methodist Church, to Mr. E. B. Fayne.

The bride was gowned in white organdy over tulle. Miss Morris, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and was dressed in white organdy over silk.

Miss Cameron, of Lexington; Miss Page, of Albemarle, and Misses Newman, Osborne and Williams, of Orange, were bridesmaids. Little Misses Morris and Wallace were flower girls.

Miss Ella Evans, a prominent and talented musician, presided at the organ, and rendered sweet strains of music during the ceremony.

Only church invitations were issued. Miss Morris is a popular society young lady, and has host of friends in the county, in Richmond and other cities.

Mr. Payne is a traveling salesman. Mr. and Mrs. Payne took the evening train to attend the St. Louis Exposition. On their return, they will make Staunton their future home.

GOTT-SMITH.
At 9 P. M., at the home of Mrs. M. A. Smith, Miss Julia Smith, daughter of Mr. Thomas Smith, of Hinton, Va., who is connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, was married to Mr. Andrew Gott, a prominent business man of Hinton.

The bride wore white mouseline, and was preceded by the waiters, Miss Lily Smith, sister of the bride, and Mr. Dunlap; Miss Gott, sister of the groom, and Mr. Percival.

Mr. Walter Faber, employed in the office of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, of Richmond, played the wedding march.

After the serving of an elegant supper, dancing was engaged in till the bridal party took the night train for Washington, Atlantic City and Niagara Falls.

Miss Smith is a lovely girl of blonde type, of amiable disposition, and is the granddaughter of Mr. Thomas Smith, a former prominent and influential citizen of Gordonsville.

The bridal couple will make their future home in Hinton, Va.

DUAL MARRIAGE.

Miss Staley to Mr. Dixon—Miss Radcliff to Mr. Martin.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CLINTON FORGE, Va., June 1.—The house of Mr. P. F. Staley was the scene at 1 o'clock to-day of a double marriage. Miss Katherine Staley and Mr. Hunter L. Dixon, of Roncoveva, W. Va., were married. Rev. Ben Hancock, of Roncoveva, and Mr. E. C. Conner, of Hinton, performed the ceremony. Mr. H. S. Dixon, brother of the groom, was best man, and the bridesmaids were Miss Joanna Morton, of Hinton, and Miss Lennie Staley, sister of the bride. The ushers were Alexander Herford, of Pratt, W. Va., and John Staley.

A reception was held at the Gladys Inn, after which the wedding party left for the St. Louis Exposition. Many prominent people were present. The bride is a leader in society here, and Mr. Dixon is assistant cashier in the First National Bank of Roncoveva.

Shortly after the above ceremony was performed, Miss Mattie Radcliff, of Pittsburg, Pa., was married at Mr. Staley's home, where the ceremony was officiating. They left for Pittsburg, where they will reside.

SWELL WEDDING.

Miss Elizabeth Painter the Bride of Rev. H. W. A. Hanson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALEM, Va., June 1.—The swellest wedding of the season was solemnized in the Lutheran Church this evening, when Rev. H. W. A. Hanson and Miss Elizabeth Painter were married. The bride is a daughter of Dr. F. W. N. Painter, well known author and educator, and the groom a prominent Lutheran minister of Wilmington, N. C. Mrs. A. H. Throne, of Danville, Ky., gave the bride away, and Mr. Roeder, of North Carolina, best man.

ELKS OPEN NEW HOME

Judge Mullen Enters Decrees in Virginia Passenger and Power Company Cases.

PLAINTIFFS GIVE BOND

The Tobacco Factory of George Cameron and Brother Close. Old Employees Rewarded.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, Va., June 1.—A brilliant celebration marked the opening of the Elks' new home in Petersburg to-night. The lodge held a business session at Odd-Fellows' Hall at 9 o'clock and marched in a body to their new home on Tabb Street. This home was formerly the home of Dr. D. W. Lanier, and was one of the handsomest residences in the city. It has been splendidly furnished and fitted. There are parlors, reading rooms, pool rooms, cafe, with electric fittings throughout the house.

DECREE ENTERED.
Judge Mullen entered decrees in the Hastings Court to-day in the case of Fisher and others against the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, the plaintiffs, George E. Fisher, Charles Hall Davis and Philip Rogers, executing bonds in the sum of $20,000, and the company and John Redwood and others, representing the intervening bondholders, executing bond in the sum of $25,000.

Messrs. R. B. Davis, of Petersburg, and H. W. Anderson, of Richmond, who were appointed receivers of certain bonds held by the plaintiffs, gave bond in the sum of $2,000 each.

FACTORY CLOSURES.

The tobacco factory of George Cameron and Brother in this city has been closed and all the heads of departments discharged. In recognition of faithful services of their managers the firm presented each with a substantial purse, which in some cases amounted to more than two months' salary.

The plant in Petersburg, together with the factory in Richmond and several others in Australia, was recently purchased by the British-American Tobacco Company.
